

Year 1872, October 25th at ten o'clock in the evening.

Birth certificate of Céline Eudoxie Latapie, born in Marseille on the 21st of this month at three o'clock in the afternoon, at Chemin Saint Barnabé, daughter of Bernard Latapie, aged thirty-three, lemonade vendor, and Rosine Stucki, aged twenty-three, without profession; married and residing at said address.

The sex of the child presented is recognized as female. — Witnesses:

Jean Baptiste Rochebrun, aged twenty-eight, furniture upholsterer, residing at 20 Rue Sibie, and Eugène Sijes, aged twenty-six, arms manufacturer, residing at 383 Boulevard National. Declaration made by the father, who signs along with the witness.

Recorded by Melchior Guinot,

Deputy to the Mayor of Marseille, delegated to perform the duties of Civil Registrar; and after reading aloud to the declarant and the witnesses, we have signed.